POSTSCEIPT.

THIS volume, as now printed, will be seen to differ but very immaterially from the original impression.

Beyond the correction of oversights in quoting, transcribing, and press-reading, very little indeed has here been attempted.

On reference to the Translator's manuscript, I found justification for changing, at p. 87, line 17, " slept a long darkness" into " slept through a long darkness,"

The same authority, fortified by the Sanskrit, showSj that, in p. 248, notes, line 1, the term " act[jr] of the first edition should have been " air," now substituted therefor. M. Langlois—see p. 141, note, 1. 6, —was formerly quoted as writing "ou libation qui porte l& nom de Trita ;" Dr. Bosen—see p. 255, notes$_3$1 1,— • was adduced for the words [u] fac nos opulentos" though he wrote " divitice nos opnlenlos and, at p. 223, notes, 1. 9,—which see,—we were told, that "Eosen has lance sacnfimis culti; M. Langlois, amis dz nos sacrifices" It will suffice to have thus intimated several categories of improvements which have been introduced in the foregoing pages.

Of proper names and their derivatives the following misspellings, most of which occurred uniformly, have been rectified: Anhas, irehitka, Chandogya, Dha-
